

Article Overview

Key manufacturers of distribution and packaging boxes in Algeria include General Emballage, Next Box Algeria, Boxpack Emballage, El Walid Emballages, and ULMA Packaging.

Major Manufacturers

General Emballage General Emballage is one of Algeria's largest packaging manufacturers, producing corrugated boards, boxes, and displays. They offer custom manufacturing with high-resolution printing up to 6 colors and provide full production services from design to delivery. Operating three industrial sites in Akbou, Oran, and Setif, they have a production capacity of nearly 260,000 tonnes and are certified under ISO 9001, ISO 14001, and ISO 45001 standards, ensuring quality and safety compliance .

Next Box Algeria Next Box specializes in highly customizable packaging solutions, including soft, durable, and rigid boxes suitable for light to heavy products. They provide full-service support across the supply chain, including design, inserts, and protective packaging options. Their focus on modular and sustainable packaging makes them suitable for businesses seeking tailored distribution boxes .

Boxpack Emballage Boxpack Emballage offers professional packaging solutions for Algerian businesses, including branded cardboard boxes, mailers, and bulk packaging. Their products are designed to be cost-efficient, durable, and suitable for e-commerce and retail distribution .

El Walid Emballages El Walid Emballages provides advanced packaging solutions, including corrugated boxes, litho-laminated printed boxes, and specialized pharmaceutical packaging. They offer high-quality finishing techniques such as 3D embossing, hot foil stamping, die-cutting, and window patching. Their factory in Kouinine, El-Oued, produces boxes with and without printing, single facers, and custom inserts, making them a versatile choice for complex distribution needs .

ULMA Packaging Algeria ULMA Packaging operates in Algeria with a focus on industrial and commercial packaging solutions. While specific product details are limited in the web results, ULMA is known globally for high-quality packaging machinery and solutions, which may include distribution boxes .

Considerations for Choosing a Manufacturer

- o Customization: Companies like Next Box and El Walid offer tailored designs and inserts for product protection.
- o Production Capacity: General Emballage has the largest production capacity, suitable for large-scale orders.
- o Certifications: ISO certifications ensure quality, safety, and environmental compliance.
- o Specialized Applications: El Walid provides pharmaceutical and high-end retail packaging with advanced finishing options. These manufacturers provide a range of options for businesses in Algeria seeking distribution boxes, from standard corrugated boxes to high-end, customized packaging solutions.
