Lumentum is illuminating the networks of tomorrow with breakthrough optical and photonic technologies that power innovation across AI, cloud, telecommunications, industrial, and sensing applications. Our world-class products are enabling a more connected world--and it's our people who make it all. Subsea fiber-optic cables are the world's information superhighways with over 95% of the world's international data traveling through them.

Conclusion: A well-made and very affordable (not cheap!) cable for studio and mobile recording. For digital connections at the rock "n" roll FOH, however, I
